

Introduction

The Digital Content Joint Working (DC JWG) of the Content Creation & Dissemination (CCD) Team seeks your feedback as institutional Representative to the CCD Team on the final draft of the Alliance's Dublin Core Best Practices for Alliance institutions https://www.orbiscascade.org/file_viewer.php?id=3587.

You'll recall that you saw and commented on these standards in November-December. While the comments were overall very positive and the project was on the right track, we've also respected the many detailed comments we received and done another round of modifications in response.

We now believe that we've got a good set of standards that is ready for adoption. And with Council's vote on March 11, we're going to be aggregating digital content at the Alliance. Please take a final look at these standards and let us know how well you think they make the mark.
